CONFERENCE MAY BE CALLED IN U. S. TO REVISE THE LEAGUE COVENANT

Harding Said to be Considering Calling the President League Members here to Re-vamp Old League or Form a New Association.

HARDING LEANS TO NEW ASSOCIATION

MARION, Ohio, Dec. 16.—Calling of the peace conference to meet in the United States to revise the League of Nations covenant or organize a new association of nations is one of the things now being considered by President-elect Harding. The conference probably would be held in Washington. Harding has never fully discussed the proposal but he is understood to be seriously considering it. Such a conference, Harding's advisers said, could either revamp the existing League framework or create an entirely new structure. Harding as President would be expected to recommend a course which will meet with America's approval. The nature of any suggestion remains to be determined. It was intimated by some of Harding's visitors that the President-elect is leaning toward an entirely new program. Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts, Vice President-elect, was to arrive here today for a conference.

CALMLY INFORMS CHILDREN MOTHER IS DEAD AFTER MURDERING HIS WIFE

GAINESVILLE, N. Y., Dec. 16.—W. M. Mell called his three children into the bedroom today and calmly informed them their mother was dead. Mrs. Mell lay on the bed with her throat cut. Mell was arrested and charged with the murder. A razor was found, and the police think he killed his wife in a fit of insanity. He had recently been paroled from the State Hospital at Rochester. He was said to have thought himself at times the victim of conspiracy by his wife and neighbors.

ALTOONA FIRE CHIEF KILLED IN A CRASH WITH SPEEDING TOURING CAR

ALTOONA, Dec. 16.—Acting Chief J. O. Howard of the Fire Department was killed and four others seriously injured late yesterday when a fire truck answering an alarm crashed into a touring car.

CORPORATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS UNABLE TO MEET INCOME TAX BILL

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The Internal Revenue officers here today estimated that nearly forty per cent. of the $100,000,000 in income taxes due yesterday was defaulted owing to the inability of individuals and corporations to make payment.

HARDING'S VISITS TO PANAMA BRINGS BETTER RELATIONS

(By Raymond L. Clapper)
(United Press Staff Correspondent with President-elect Harding.)

Panama City, P. R. (by mail).—The visit of President-elect Harding to the capital of the Panamanian republic is resulting in a noticeable increase in the friendly feeling toward the United States, according to Panamanian officials and prominent Americans here.

It has checked, for the time being, at least, a growing undercurrent of resentment toward the United States which has been assiduously fanned by radical Panamanians seeking to overthrow the Perros party now in power and avowedly friendly to the American government.

Harding accomplished this, Americans here say, by his friendly remarks at the dinner given him by President Perros and appearances at informal receptions, where he emphasized the responsibility resting on the Republic of Panama and intimated that the United States wanted all countries to have the same share of freedom in international relations that it desires for itself.

Friction has been developing for some time, centering largely around disputes over acquisition of land in Panama to be used in fortifying the canal. A treaty gives the United States the right to purchase lands for this purpose, but a difference has arisen over the price to be paid, the American officials insisting on the 1914 valuation figures and Panamanians claiming this is too low now. Just now the contemplated acquisition of sites on Tobago Island for additional defenses at the Pacific end of the canal is the center of friction.

This feeling reached a crisis recently, when General Perrosing was on a tour of inspection in the canal zone. Local politicians had been haranguing a crowd in front of the Union Club, where General Perrosing was to be feted. The crowd got out of hand and began throwing rocks at automobiles in which Americans were arriving for the banquet. Word was dispatched to General Perrosing, who was about to start from the Tivoli Hotel at Ancon and what might have been a serious incident was thereby averted.

President Perros, formerly Panamanian minister to the United States is exerting every effort to allay this unfriendly feeling, and it was to assist him in this enterprise and to seek a better understanding with the citizens of the Panamanian republic that Senator Harding abandoned his reluctance to visit foreign soil while in Panama.

Leading citizens of Panama realize fully, Americans here say, that it is only with the backing of the United States that they are enabled to preserve their independence. Colombia could, it is admitted, recapture the country in brief time were it not for the protecting influence of the United States, which unofficially assisted Panama in its secession from Colombia. This situation, observers here declare, is sufficient alone to keep in check the extreme nationalists seeking to embitter the Panamanians against the United States.

BECTION-SHEESLEY

Frank E. Becton and Miss Hazel Sheesley, both of Clearfield, were united in marriage at 6 o'clock last evening at the Eleventh Street Methodist Episcopal parsonage by the Rev. Durstine.

Mrs. P. T. Walsh, left today for Butler to attend the funeral of her sister.

Mrs. Edgar A. Markel, of Janesville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Connelly, at their home on Fourth street at present.

Will pay five cents each before 9 o'clock tomorrow for copies of The Progress of Nov. 22, 23 and Dec. 6 and 8.

Dad's Day

C. H. S. READY FOR BUCKNELL GAME TOMORROW NIGHT

Clearfield High's cage candidates have been working hard all week in preparation for the classic clash tomorrow evening with the fast Bucknell Freshmen quintet, and realizing that this contest will probably be the most strenuous that C. H. S. will participate in before the league opens, Coach Staff is anxious to have his proteges in the pink of condition for this game, and from all appearances the Red and Black will probably make things mighty interesting for the college yearlings when they meet.

The varsity lineup is very uncertain these days, for with five letter men out for berths, and several other promising players on the squad, Coach Staff has ample material from which to select his regulars. The following players from last year's quintet are back: Captain Neff, center; N. Smith, Kurtz and N. Norris, all regular guards last season, while Martin and Bill Ammerman, who held down forward posts in '19, are more than mediocre contenders for positions. In addition to these players Dave Bowes and Wayne Johnson, both newcomers on the local basketball court, have broken into the first five's lineup and will make last season's guards hustle to gain varsity posts.

Walter Flegal, former C. H. S. coach and star, viewed last evening's practice. "Fat" made an enviable name for himself in western athletic circles, starring in both football and basketball on Colorado College varsity teams.

Ed. Butler, whose feats both on the gridiron and in the cage, will long be remembered by the sport followers of Clearfield, will be on the squad of Bucknell stars that oppose C. H. S. tomorrow evening.

STEPHEN HOLT PASSES AWAY

Stephen Holt, who has for some years been conducting a general merchandising store at the "cross roads" in Morris township, Clearfield county, not far from Morrisdale, and on the way leading from the latter place to Deer Creek, died shortly after 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, at McGirk's sanitarium, where he had been receiving treatment for several weeks. His death was the result of complications with which he had been suffering for some time. He was generally able to be around and to give his business his personal attention until just recently.

Mr. Holt was a native of Clearfield county, and well known through out this section, where most of his life was spent. He never married, and was the last of his generation. His brother, Reuben Holt, who farmed and conducted a store at Sington, died several years ago, the other members of the family passing away prior to this. He was aged about 63 years.

The funeral will take place from the Centre Hill Methodist church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HUNTING TALES UNFOLDED AS SEASON ENDS

George Caldwell of Rockton the Hunting Goliath of the Season Dick Pike a Jonah.

OLD FARM BOUGHT FOR NEW CAMP

There were 9,380 licensed resident hunters and 36 non-residents hunting in Clearfield county during the season which closed yesterday, according to the records in County Treasurer Rumberger's office. In addition to this number several hundred other Pennsylvania hunters found their way into our county in search of both small and "big game."

The deer season was unsatisfactory, so far as the weather generally was concerned, but despite that handicap more than 200 deer were killed in the county. An extra large number of does were slaughtered this year. The hunter who shoots a doe does so wantonly rather than carefully and this class of hunters will never desist from their nefarious practice until the penalty for killing a doe is made much more drastic. The $100 fine is not sufficient penalty, the hunter—no sportsman would do it—should lose his license to hunt for at least three years in addition to the fine.

L. D. Rearick, keeper of Kennedy Park game reserve, has a large number of traps set in and about the game reserve in an effort to depopulate the varmint family infesting that region and which prey upon game birds and animals. This morning when he visited his traps he found a fine red fox and a wild cat weighing 40 pounds. During the past three weeks Mr. Rearick has trapped five foxes.

During the deer season that is just closed the DuBois crowd that formerly met each year at the Stone Camp, near Medix, has occupied the Rupert farm, out from Pennfield. The club now owns this farm, the sale having been completed recently. The hunting camp first secured an option on the farm, and after having occupied it for a time concluded that it was just the place they were looking for and the deal was closed.

Those who have been out to the camp during the past season unite in declaring it one of the best locations that could have been secured and at the same time provides for the campers real comfort. The farm house is a large one, with kitchen, dining room, bed rooms aplenty. The hunters found the territory in that vicinity well suited for sport and the camp secured at least three deer during the season. There is a splendid view from the front

WORKERS ON SEAL SALES TO REPORT FRIDAY OR SAT.

Seal sale committees are requested to report at headquarters on Friday or Saturday afternoons between 3 and 5 o'clock.

All chairmen having bonds or seals they will not need in their territory will kindly send them to the headquarters on Friday or Saturday afternoons so other committees are waiting for them.

The Clearfield Avenue committee has done the good work and has handed in $3 more.

Clearfield Mill-Working Company has taken a $5 bond; Santa refrigerator works, $5 worth seals; Dr. Bailey, $5 bond; Clearfield Trust Company, $50 bond; A. E. Wright, $10 bond; Louis Geynet, $5 bond. The Boy Scouts of Clearfieldville, under the able direction of Prof. Shields, have charge of the seal sale in Clearfieldville.

Houtzdale is sending for more seals by every mail. Hyde school had a great sale planned. On account of the illness of the chairman, Mrs. S. C. Kirk, it will be delayed, but it is expected things will hum when once started.

porch of the farm house, and even though one does not care for hunting he can put in time in perfect enjoyment, just roaming around, eating and sleeping. There are about 12 acres of land cleared.

Arthur McCool, Third street, an engineer employed at the power house at DuBois, was injured yesterday while out hunting for rabbits. It is impossible to secure full details of the accident, but it is supposed that Mr. McCool was accidentally shot by his own gun. A considerable number of small shot entered his breast, legs and side, but just how far they penetrated has not yet been determined.

Following the accident the injured man walked four miles to his home, after which medical assistance was summoned. The condition of the injured man last evening was described as very favorable. It will be several days before the full extent of the injuries are determined, according to physicians. Late in the evening Mr. McCool was removed to the Maple Avenue Hospital.

From Woodland comes this tale: As our boys are returning from camp and relating their experiences with the timid deer, we find many amusing tales, but the most authentic one comes from the Pike camp, near the head waters of Deer creek. To understand this the reader must remember there are four Pikes in this crew and nine fellows who are not "Pikes."

This story only involves the two elder Pikes (Dick, Sr. and Dick, Jr.) Bill and Ed were only the sad on-lookers.

Here goes: Dick, Sr., was on the crossing along with a number of other fellows, and he carries a .38 calibre, a weapon somewhat prehistoric. Soon an "eight point" came

EIGHT MEN FOR EACH ONE IN MIDDLE WEST EMPLOYMENT

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—A surplus of about five jobs exists in the middle west according to agencies and railroad records here today. With the plus employers have cut wages.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16.—A man shot himself today when 700 unemployed men stormed an agency which advertised for 25 men. Police were called to preserve order.

WILL TRY TO REGULATE COAL TRADE THROUGH FEDERAL COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Supervision of the coal trade by the Federal Trade Commission probably will be a bill now being drafted by Senator Gurnea, of New York, according to plans announced here today. The proposed bill is the result of Calder's report to the Senate that profiteering is a "national disgrace" and is hampering building and reconstruction generally.

THREE NAVAL AVIATORS STRAY AND LOST IN THE ADIRONDACK MOUNTAINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—With no word today from three naval lieutenants who left here Monday on a mission to Canada it was believed they were wandering in the underbrush of the upper Adirondack mountains. They had been deserted by vacationists and fire rangers. The men are covered with two feet of snow. Naval officers here say they still had some hope for the men because they were clothed for the Arctic air and that their last known food to last several days.

WOODLAND PEOPLE HOME FROM VISIT TO ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. James Henshille and sons, James Jr. and Arthur, returned Tuesday evening to their home in Woodland after being absent four months. They visited their old home and relatives in London and South Wales, Scotland, England.

They traveled both ways on the Kalamazoo Augusta Victoria, a former North German Lloyd liner, now in the employ of the British line. They had a very rough passage home, encountering heavy seas which broke up one of their lifelines and caused a great deal of sickness among the passengers.

With the exception of Mrs. Henshille, who suffered the loss of her mother while they were there, they all enjoyed good health and are looking fine and all are delighted to get back home again. They report conditions in England as most deplorable. The high cost of living, lack of trade and the Irish question being uppermost in everybody's mind.

along. "Bang!" Down went "Mr. Buck" and Dick to make him more meek gave him a supposed fatal "28" in the neck, but feeling somewhat uneasy about his gun's killing power and knowing that Dick, Jr. had a Remington, called very forcefully for him to complete the slaughter. When turning around, upon hearing some noise in his rear, he saw his trophy disappear from his view, but Dick was gone and gave him a farewell "38" out through the red brush, but with no results.

The boys feel sorry for Dick, even though the crew landed four other fine bucks, but he says next year that he has a large older spotted one he intends to make himself a good "pop gun" and will "wrap the '28" in a dog."

This year's hunters' licenses contained a blank to be filled out by the hunter and returned to the state game commission at Harrisburg showing the amount of game killed during the season. George Caldwell, of Rockton, sent his blank properly filled out back to the county treasurer's office and according to this report George is some successful hunter. He says he killed one deer, one bear, 29 rabbits, three grey squirrels, one black squirrel, one wild turkey, three ring-neck pheasants, five wild geese, six wild cats, two grey foxes, one red fox, four minks, 14 crows, five hawks, and three owls. This modern Goliath slew all these animals during a hunting period extending over three weeks, according to the aforesaid return. The only comment we feel like adding to this statement is that while the mighty hunter's name is George, we note it is not "George Washington."

COURT NOTES

George Calman, by his attorney, A. M. Liveright, entered suit in the prothonotary's office this morning against Patsy B. Smith, $250.00 to recover $250.00 which Calman claims she owes him on the note which was in which their relationship was

HIGH SCHOOL CLUB COMING

The girls club of the high school is planning to make its first appearance at the high school ballroom tonight.

This club, which is under the leadership of Miss Henshille, has achieved great success in its home town, will undoubtedly secure a far greater reputation in this city. The number of members has been increased from 30 to 50, the program most retaining only the best of the previous season and adding a few new ones.

All the favorite dances, as well as a prominent part in the dancing program, are being given. Several new dances have also been discovered and have already proven their worth. The club is departing for the common custom of going home after sending to the larger clubs for the principal dancers and in doing so will obtain in the community.

Some of the members' Christmas songs will be given and the remainder of the program will consist of several readings, including a beautiful and appropriate one for the holiday season.

Tickets are being distributed to the different members of the organization. Admission will be only 10 cents.

IAN WHO ARRESTED PANHANDLE IS FREE

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 16.—Lynn Adams, superintendent of the state police, announced today that Trooper John Gahagan, of Fairville, who arrested Augustus "Kidnapper of the Capital" later, the man discharged from the force because he claimed the $1,000 reward offered by the Montgomery county commissioners.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Clifford Hipps, an employee of the Crescent Refractories Company, and Miss Jane O. Williams, Ridge avenue, both of this place, were married by John A. Dale at his residence on River street, Wednesday evening, December 15. The newly married couple will reside here.

It is stated that Miss Bernadetta Cole, daughter of John Cole, a resident of South Side, and Andrew Anderson, were united in marriage at the home of a friend in Elmira several days ago. Both have many friends here who wish them happiness in their new relation.

William L. Wise, residing on a farm near New Millport, died rather suddenly Tuesday night. He had worked hauling coal on the day previous and was in apparently good health when he retired for the night.

About midnight a strong wind was blowing, which awakened Mr. Wise, who thought he heard some one trying to enter the house by a window. He arose and made an investigation and concluded that he was mistaken. He returned to bed, and a short while afterward his wife heard him struggling for his breath. She administered to him what remedies were at hand, but without avail. He was about 70 years of age, and was a citizen highly esteemed in his neighborhood. He is survived by a widow and one son, the latter residing in Altoona.

C. A. Rorobough leaves today for Rochester, N. Y., where he expects to eat his Christmas dinner with his son, Clair Rorobough and family.

"Little Bob White," the entertainment given in the opera house last evening under the auspices of the Rescue Hose and Ladder Company, was a grand success in every particular, both in a financial way and several hours of genuine fun. Space will not permit the publication of the names of those taking part in the show suffice to state that all presented their parts in a most able manner. The large room was crowded, every seat being occupied. The well rendering of this play on Wednesday evening guarantees the statement that "Bob White" will play to a full house on Friday evening.

It is astonishing for one to visit a toy store and watch people spending considerable money in the purchase of frivolous toys for their children. Toys that have no bottom to them whatever and will only last so long as one handles them with kid gloves. It is all right for the little ones, as long as they last—a few days only.

Laborers who made from $5 to $7 per day all summer, and who are now out of employment, realize that they made a great mistake in not laying up something against a rainy day, instead of living up to and some of them beyond their income. They did not stop to consider that work was likely to slacken down and thereby curtail their income. They realize it now, however, and feel that a mistake was made by them in not laying by a stipulated sum each week that they might fall back on when labor became scarce.

Roads leading out into the rural districts are just simply impassable, and automobile travel has ceased almost entirely.

Mont Blanc.

Mont Blanc, the highest mountain in the Alps, is generally spoken of as the highest mountain in Europe, although Elbruz, in the mountains of the Caucasus, is 3,000 feet higher. Mont Blanc is situated in the French department of Haute Savoie, on the Italian border, and about 39 miles south of the lake of Geneva. It has an elevation above the sea of 15,781 feet. The mountain is generally ascended from the village of Chamouni. The summit was first reached by Belmat, a guide, in 1788.

The KITCHEN CABINET

"The beauty of the house is order. The blessing of the house is contentment. The good will of the house is hospitality. The inspiration of the house is godliness. But the glory of the house is love."

SEASONABLE DISHES.

A doughnut which keeps moist until used may be made from the following recipe:

Potato Doughnuts.—Take four and one-half cups of pastry flour, four level teaspoons of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, one-third of a cup of soda, three eggs beaten light, one cupful of granulated sugar, one cupful of mashed potatoes, three tablespoons of melted butter and three-fourths of a cupful of sour milk. Sift the dry ingredients, add sugar to the eggs, the butter to the potatoes, and combine the two mixtures; add sour milk and stir in the dry ingredients. Take a little of the dough at a time, knead lightly, roll into a sheet, cut in rounds and fry in deep fat. Keep the dough as soft as possible. A good way to do this is to chill it and roll and fry quickly before the mixture is softened.

Fresh Fish Salad.—Separate a white variety of fresh cooked fish into flakes while the fish is still warm. Squeeze the juice of half a lemon over a pint of the fish, sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper and set aside to become chilled. When ready to serve, drain, add leaves and tips of stems from a bunch of water cress, mix with enough Russian salad dressing to hold the ingredients together and shape in a mound on a serving dish. Lettuce may replace the cress.

Russian Dressing for Fish.—Shred four anchovies, freed from oil or fresh eel in water; add four hard cooked egg yolks and a tablespoonful of prepared mustard; pound with a pestle to a smooth paste, then press through a sieve. Add the paste to one and one-half cups of mayonnaise dressing; mix the paste in a little of the dressing, then add more until all is smoothly blended. Finish with half a cupful of smoked salmon, cut in quarter-inch slices.

Grape fruit served with grape juice is a most delectable way of serving the well-liked breakfast fruit.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, sniffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Adv.

Read Over The List And See How Easily It Can Be Done

Blankets

We have all sorts of blankets—cotton or wool. And if you're giving the sort of gifts that last you'll consider blankets.

Trunks and Hand Bags

For the person going away or if they intend to go away, one of these trunks or a hand bag would be acceptable.

We're showing the whole gamut of hosiery—silk, wool, cotton—for every member of the family. They're acceptable gifts.

Slippers for Everyone

How could any gift list be complete without a pair of slippers and—how many beautiful patterns are here. A pair for every member of any family.

Giving Shoes is Sensible

And more so if you'll give sensible shoes. That's the sort you'll find here in profusion especially the Educator Shoe for growing feet.

Table Coverings

Not much real linen but some clever imitations that are hard to tell from the real linen. We have table cloths and napkins to match.

Towels and Towel Sets

Here's the gift that comes in handy when you're puzzled what to give. No home but what can utilize one or more either single towels or sets.

Puzzled? Give Stationery!

And when you give Eaton Crane stationery you rest assured that you've given a stationery that will meet the requirements of the strictest correspondence need.

Toilet Articles On the Gift List?

We feature Colgate's Toilet Waters, Soaps, Face Powders, Tooth Pastes and Powders are here aplenty and a collection would make a nice gift.

Possibly you have some newly wedded couple or you want to surprise Mother. We have dinner sets or fancy china that will make eyes sparkle.

Another Puzzle Solver—Handkerchiefs

Isn't it a real truth that these old standbys are here in such a profusion that you'll find several that will meet your needs.

Neckwear a Welcome Gift

A pleasing gift, too. Of course it won't mean a big outlay of cash unless you want to go into the most elaborate sets. But it carries the real spirit of the season and that's what counts.

Dainty Lacy Boudoir Caps

Here's something we feature every year. We have a source of supply that seems to give us the prettiest ones imaginable and some of them are real works of art.

A Suggestion—Kid Gloves

Half a dozen pairs of kid gloves would make a gift that would be remembered long after other gifts were forgotten. We have colors and various priced kids.

What a charming gift! Every

Dollies For Joy—Makers for Kiddies

What little tot wouldn't squeal with joy and hug such dollies as we have here very, very tight on Xmas morning! We have dolls here that will make any little mother glad.

Give That Miss a "Yankee Maid" Middie

And she'll think you must have read her thoughts. From what we have heard many school girls that pass the store say, there is many a heart would be gladdened with one of these.

Ribbons for Every Use

The wide ones for hair bows—the narrow ones for running thru decorations, the in-between ones for the thousand and one uses that ribbons are put to—they're all here.

Our Waist Section Teems With Gifts

We question whether you'll find anywhere a more beautiful collection of Women's Waists suitable for gifts anywhere. And you'll find prices very moderate.

Men's Shirts and Neckwear

If there is a man on the gift list you can hit the spot with one of these shirts or a necktie. They're mappy stylings and the colors are varied aplenty.

Give Mother a Carpet Sweeper

If you give her one of these she'll know that her hours of back breaking "broom drill" are at an end and will think of you every time she uses it.

A Dress Pattern of Beautiful Silk yard of our silk is the sort that you can be sure of your quality. Of course we can show you some charming colors.

STYLES OF FRENCH LINGERIE

Empire Chemise Great Favorite; Delicate Little Underthings Are Made of Linen.

The empire chemise has become a great favorite with the Parisienne. It is a little, frail thing that has a rather full yoke and a short skirt. It is edged with lace and strapped over the shoulders with ribbon, and it has that charm that all the modes of the empire period have, the short-waisted-ness being a real asset at this time of the corset taboo. These delicate little underthings are made, when they are smartest, of linen. Sometimes crepe de chine is commandeered for

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bother You—Drink Lots of Water

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; go sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region: rheumatic twin-gles, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone;
makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney diseases.—Adv.

the making, and often a French material called "linon" forms the foundation for these bits of lingerie. From extraneous ribbons are seen, and the fine and exquisite strips of lace are sewn only around the top or at the base of the little yoke. At the bottom there is no trimming of lace, and over the shoulders just simple straps of heavy wash ribbon are placed.

Hand-stitching there is a plenty.
All of the many tucks and seams and edges are so fine and beautifully done that they may some day be relegated to museums as examples of the art of finished labor in the way of lace-ry.

The set started by the small linen chemise is completed by a pair of short "knickers," very full at the bottom and held tightly by a rubber band above the knees. Then the Frenchwomen wear over all of this a combination, consisting of tiny bodice and full, short skirt. The underwear is not a part of the French lingerie.
The women do not wear corsets, and so they do not bother with this extra piece of accoutrement, which plan surely makes their dressing a more beautiful performance, since there is nothing really interesting about an underwear, no matter how it may be softened by material and handsome trimmings of ribbon and lace.

TURBANS ARE IN LIMELIGHT

Turbans of metallic cloth and beaver strips, and off-the-face models faced with fur are featured in certain quarters of the millinery trade at the present time. The fur-faced hats, according to the bulletin of the Retail Millinery Association of America, are very smart. In one of the most attractive of these use is made of pheasant brown velvet. The brim of this hat has a narrow band which fits close to the forehead. A second brim widens and flares high in front and narrows and turns over like a cuff in the back.
The front of the brim is faced with real moleskin and two smoked pearl pins are used to ornament it.

Gray squirrel is used to face the brim of a fetching hat of gray panne velvet. The brim flares high in front and is bent to a point. A long pin of repper threads pierces the front of the brim and juts over the edge. Natural color caracul makes an effective facing, the bulletin says, particularly when contrasted with a brilliant color. In one hat faced with that fur there is a round full crown of royal blue velvet. The front of the brim is fastened with a pin of copper. Sealskin and broadie are also combined in an effective turban.

The Small Hat.
For general wear the small hat prevails. Many variations of the turban are seen. The turban is never really out of fashion. Something closely akin to it always remains in millinery.
The influence of the far East on recent fashions has given prominence to the turban.
